Main point: Hope in God and obey by faith

- 1. This is an expression of pastoral care
- 2. Submission is a Christian virtue
- 3. The Bible redefines beauty

#1:

“Darwin himself was perfectly aware of the tremendous implication of the claims of...the concept of evolution by natural selection which eliminated the hand of God from the design of life. His own religious beliefs had been gradually eroding as his belief in evolution had grown...he must have seen that the elimination of meaning and purpose from human existence, which was the inescapable conclusion of his position, was for man, including his wife, a profoundly disturbing reality to accept.”

#2:

Romans 2:7-8

To those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury.

#3:

“Instead of trying to coax and argue her husband into becoming a Christian, she will be more effective by quietly living out its saving power before him. His conscience will be forced to admit the presence of a divine power in her faith that he has often mocked. ‘It is her translation of the gospel into life – right before the man’s eyes – which proves a telling witness.’”

Proverbs 31:25

Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come.

#5:

“If we adorn ourselves with a gentle and quiet spirit by responding to trials, temptations, loss, and fear with an unshakeable trust in God, we will achieve a rare and real beauty. This beauty is “very precious” in the sight of God. The phrase means ‘costly,’ and it is set in sharp contrast to the costliness of the immodest woman’s extravagant adornment.”
